

Curriculum Aims

We aim to:

- provide a full, varied and rich curriculum that is adapted to meet the needs of every child;
- provide an environment where children are stimulated, secure, happy and valued as individuals so that they become independent and compassionate with a desire to learn and achieve;
- provide a curriculum which inspires a sense of wonder, excitement and awe in the world about us leading to engaged, steadfast, life-long learners;
- give children a knowledge of the cultural difference that exists in the world;
- give children the opportunity to learn to value cultural variety;
- develop the spiritual awareness of our children and community.
