

Kings and Queens – plots and power

Knowledge Organiser Willow Class – Big Questions: What qualities make a good Leader? Are all people equal? Does power corrupt? Can we always trust historical sources?

HISTORY	When was The Battle of Hastings and who was it between?	The Battle of Hastings was fought in 1066 . It was between William of Normandy (France) and Harold Godwinson who was the Anglo-Saxon king of the time. William won!
	The body of which English monarch (king) was discovered under a carpark in Leicester?	Richard III
	Henry VIII and Elizabeth I were both part of which line (dynasty) of kings and queens?	The Tudors
	Which queen ruled for just 9 days?	Lady Jane Grey
R.E - Why is Christianity so diverse?	Who is the head of the Catholic church?	The Pope
	Where does he live?	Vatican City in Rome. (Italy) It is ruled by The Pope and is technically a country – being the smallest country in Europe.
	Who founded The Church of England?	Henry VIII founded the Church of England – partly so he could divorce his first wife (Catherine of Aragon) because the Pope would not allow him to do so.
	Many Christians worship in different ways. They all believe in Jesus and his message but believe in different ideas of worship. These different types of church are called what?	Denominations There are many Christian denominations including: Catholic, Protestant, Anglican, Methodist, Quakers, Baptists and many more.
SCIENCE – Material	What are the three states do all materials exist in?	Solid, Liquid, gas
	What do we call a change from one state to another. Eg. Ice to water?	A reversible (or physical change)
	What are the names of the processes , which describes how a	Solid to Liquid = melting Liquid to gas = evaporation solid changes to a liquid and a liquid changes to a gas?

What are the names of the processes which describe how a gas changes to a liquid and a liquid changes to a solid?

Gas to Liquid = condensation
Liquid to solid = freezing / solidifying

Kings and Queens – plots and power - 2

Knowledge Organiser Willow Class – Big Questions: What qualities make a good Leader? Are all people equal? Does power corrupt? Can we always trust historical sources?

HISTORY	Traitors Gate is a gate which leads to which famous London landmark?	The Tower of London
	William Shakespeare was a famous play write in Tudor times. Where was he born?	Stratford upon Avon
	Who was the last Tudor monarch?	Elizabeth I
	The English Civil war was a war fought between those people who supported the king and those who wanted to get rid of the king. Who was the king and what eventually happened to him?	Charles I was the king. The Cavaliers were on the side of the king and the Roundheads fought against him. Their leader was Oliver Cromwell. Charles I - he was imprisoned (For some time on the Isle of Wight) and then beheaded.
R.E - Why is Christianity so diverse?	Who started the protestant church in Europe?	Martin Luther
	Martin Luther King was a Baptist minister and civil rights campaigner who believed that all people should be equal. In which country did he live?	America (1929 – 1968)
	Who is the head of the Church of England today?	The reigning monarch (king or queen) has the title the Defender of the Faith . The Archbishop of Canterbury is the head of the Church of England.
SCIENCE – Material	If a solid ‘disappears’ when added to water, it is said to have... what?	Dissolved Salt dissolves in water.
	A mixture of a liquid (such as water) and a dissolved solid (such as salt) is called...what?	A solution
	What could you use to separate a mixture of two solids of different sizes?	A sieve
	What could you use to separate a solid and a liquid (when the solid had not dissolved in the liquid)?	A funnel and filter paper - filtration
	When a materials is burnt to create new materials, we call this a chemical change. What other name is used to describe this change?	An irreversible change